

KADEBOSTANY

MONUMENTAL

Undisputed rulers of the new pop empire, Kadebostany announce the release of their genre-defining new album "MONUMENTAL", coming March 2018.

After several chart-topping singles, numerous represses of the previous album and triumphant intensive touring, approaching the composition of a new album can be tricky waters to navigate when the formula for the previous one proved so successful. For composer/producer Guillaume de Kadebostany, the route to take is clear and simple: revoke the waves of advice, ignore the tides of rules and expectations, keep your feet firmly planted on solid ground, take a sharp turn towards forbidden fields and draw a new highway straight through towards yet-uncharted territories where radical experiment fuses with mass appeal.

The quest to design this ultimate pop album has taken Kadebostany through hills and plains the world over in search of unconventional contributors and outlandish ideas. All manner of peculiar artists were assembled to weave the intricate tapestry that is MONUMENTAL, the banner for a pop empire which everyone can stand under.

Each of the 13 songs on Monumental stands alone and distinct, yet all 13 create the indivisible MONUMENTAL, a singular collection of sophisticated music for every individual.
